SEXUAL AND PERSONAL RELATIONSHIPS

OUTSIDERS

Outsiders is a nationwide, self-help, community providing regular mailings, and unthreatening events where people meet up and practice socialising. Members appreciate a club where they are totally accepted, and some of the most amazing relationships have been formed.

Outsiders are for people who feel isolated because of socially and physical disabilities. The club helps them gain confidence, make new friends and find partners. We welcome people of all sexualities, whether they are single, divorced, separated or married, and we discriminate against no one. Their members appreciate a club where disability is accepted and people can relax and be themselves. The first step may be to acknowledge the person's sexuality, and offer support in asserting their right to a private life, and seeking love in a society where status normally stems from good looks and money.
